CML CONTRACTORS (A Service-Disabled, Woman Veteran-Owned Small Business)

CML Contractors is a distinguished small business owned by a service-disabled woman veteran, committed to providing outstanding facility maintenance services to both government agencies and commercial clients across the nation. Founded by a U.S. Army veteran with 25 years of active-duty service, CML Contractors was created to leverage her extensive knowledge and skills in meeting the increasing need for competent, minority-owned service providers throughout the southern United States.

The establishment of CML Contractors reflects a dedication to excellence and inclusivity within the industry. With a focus on delivering high-quality service, the company aims to support various sectors while championing the representation of women and minority veterans in the marketplace.

Jordon Construction Company ("JCC"), a nationwide HUBZone-certified and 2024 8(a) graduate facilities services and general contracting firm based in Greenville, SC.
